Luke Allison Associate, Office Leasing

As an Associate in the Office Leasing and Brokerage division of NAI Welsh, Luke Allison works closely with senior brokers to provide exceptional office leasing service to tenants and owners in the Twin Cities Southwest submarket.

A hardworking and dedicated professional, Luke canvasses the Southwest submarket and actively monitors vacancies, lease expirations and transaction data. Luke's knowledge of the local market and communication skills makes him an invaluable asset to the office team during lease negotiations and enables Luke to help his clients make informed decisions.

A recent graduate from Calvin College, Luke graduated with a degree in both business and economics. He gained corporate and real estate experience through two previous internships with NAI Welsh.
