AREA OF EXPERTISE

As a Senior Associate in the Investment Sales Group of Colliers International Minneapolis-St. Paul, Amy Senn works alongside a seasoned team of experts that assist clients with buying and selling commercial investment properties. These opportunities include retail, office, industrial, and multi-family properties. Amy's primary responsibilities include market research, analysis, due diligence and the marketing of properties.

Since joining Colliers International (Welsh) in 1999, Amy has specialized in understanding the specific needs of her clients. She has worked with both local and national retailers to assist them with their expansion in the Twin Cities metro area. Amy provides the latest market information along with her knowledge of recent transactions to facilitate negotiations on behalf of her clients. She has represented national retailers such as Radio Shack, Golds Gym, Fantastic Sams, Staples, and GNC.

Over the years, Amy has been involved in leasing over 1 million square feet of retail space with a net consideration totaling over $88 million. She has been involved in development projects from the ground up working with developers such as Ryan Companies and Mount Development. She has also provided leasing services for existing shopping centers with local and institutional property owners. Amy's extensive retail background and trusted relationships with tenants, landlords and developers are invaluable assets to her clients and team as she expands her career with the Investment Sales Group of Colliers International.
