

Matt Cimino

Senior Corporate Counsel

Education

- Juris Doctorate, Cum Laude, Creighton University School of Law
- Bachelor of Science, With Honors, Montana State University

Professional Memberships

- American Bar Association
- Minnesota and Hennepin County Bar Associations
- Missouri Bar Association
- Association of Corporate Counsel

Community Involvement

- Board Member, The Soap Factory
- Member, Association of Corporate Counsel, Minnesota Chapter

As Senior Corporate Counsel for Welsh, Matt oversees all legal and risk management operations for the company. Matt serves as Secretary for Welsh Property Trust, LLC and also directly advises Welsh and its subsidiaries on a variety of corporate and real estate legal matters including; joint ventures, private placements, mergers and acquisitions, dispositions, financing, leasing, insurance, development, construction, tenant-in-common exchanges and environmental compliance.

Outside of Welsh, Matt sits on the Board of Directors for The Soap Factory, a nationally recognized non-profit gallery and artist cooperative located in Minneapolis. He is also a member of the Pro Bono/Community Service Committee for the Minnesota Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel.

Prior to joining Welsh, Matt practiced law with large law firms in both Kansas City and Minneapolis, focusing in the areas of real estate, environmental, finance and corporate law.